

VINO CALANDRA

Over the past 40 years, the Calandra Family have dedicated themselves to providing to their customers the best possible product at the most affordable price. It is for this reason that we have decided to venture into producing our own bottle of wine. From an exclusive small single vineyard in Sicily, we have produced VINO Calandra; a medium bodied red and white wine that goes well with pastas, fishes and meats. Since we are providing this wine ourselves and shipping it directly to America in large containers, we are eliminating the middleman. We have elected to sell our family wine to you at a much-reduced price for our patrons only. This wine will not be made available outside of our establishments.

Our standard wine bottles are available in both white and red wine. From a small single vineyard in Sicily, our wines are all made from Sicilian grown grapes. The white wine is made from a grape variety called Inzola. The red wine is made from the Nero D'Avola grape. To enjoy with your dinner, we recommend purchasing our larger format bottle, 1.5 liter, "which is a double size bottle". We have priced our 1.5 liter bottles of Nero D'Avola and Inzolia less expensively than most premium valued 750ml standard size bottles that are available in the market today, so that our customers can enjoy double the amount of wine at a less than a standard bottle price.

NJ STATE LAW

New Jersey State Law now allows you to take any unconsumed wine home with you. The wine must be re-corked by staff members at our restaurant and kept in our carrying bag while you are transporting it in your vehicle. The wine and the wine bag must be kept in either your trunk or if your vehicle does not have a trunk, then the last row of seating in your vehicle.

Feel free to purchase our house wines in a larger format bottle or all our wines in our standard size bottle, and take home any unfinished wine with you to enjoy at home this evening or even with tomorrow's dinner. You can also purchase an unopened bottle of VINO Calandra at our bar, packed in our decorated bag, which could be a special gift for friends and family.

Please let us know how you enjoyed our family wine,
